Spectacular London Julian Shuckburgh
This magnificent collection of more than 150 stunning photographs of the city by London's finest photographers is a visual delight. 'Spectacular London' takes the reader on a virtual tour of this most complex of cities, exploring the sights best known and loved by the millions of tourists who visit each year. From Buckingham Palace to the tower of London, from the great parks and the river to the ancient city walls, the palaces, churches, monuments, museums and galleries for which London is famous are shown in all their glory. Many photographs are large format, including several breathtaking pull-out panoramic shots almost a metre wide. Themes covered in the chapters include royal London, the Thames, London culture and London life. Each chapter has a fascinating introduction supported by informative extended captions that give interesting details about every image.
