Welcome to Frost Heaves

Fred Marple

Welcome to Frost Heaves Fred Marple
In the grand tradition of Bert and I, Mark Twain, and Lake Wobegon comes Welcome to Frost Heaves, a collection of stories from “the most under-appreciated town in New Hampshire” as told by Fred Marple, the town’s unofficial spokesman. From town meeting to the town dump, Frost Heaves is every small New England town you’ve ever visited, and a few you probably don’t want to. Fred Marple tells the story about the imaginary characters that live and interact in Frost Heaves, and the lessons they learn from their (often hilarious) capers.

About the show: Frost Heaves is a variety show of Yankee music, comedy, and nonsense direct from "the most under-appreciated town in New Hampshire." The Frost Heaves Players present all that is wacky and wonderful about New England, led by Fred Marple (singer, songwriter and humorist Ken Sheldon). Winner of a "Best of NH" award, Frost Heaves has been called "Hilarious," "Outstanding," and "more fun than the time Elmer Cratchet put the live lobster in the punch bowl at the church supper.”
