The One-Eyed Giant (Greek Beasts and Heroes) Lucy Coats
The penultimate leg of Atticus the Storyteller's epic journey through the ancient world, this is the 11th installment of tales of ancient Greece, introducing young readers to the greatest stories ever told

What really happened during the fall of Troy—and who was to blame for the war? The answers are in these captivating stories, ideal for reading at bedtime, one each night, before the lights go out. Young readers will also find answers to many of their questions about the fates and fortunes of favorite classic characters from other books in the series. Odysseus, Penelope, Ajax, Helen, Cassandra, and Zeus are all here, and their stories leap off the page in words and pictures.
