Second Time Dead Stephen Cain
In the rousing action adventure thriller Second Time Dead, American textile billionaire Vanessa Stock seeks the help of retired British Special Air Service agent Jonnie McBride, who is now living in Thailand, where he has become a famous Black Ops assassin. Vanessa wants the former SAS member to rescue her identical twin sister, who has been abducted by a slave trafficker. McBride is initially reluctant to accept the assignment, until he realizes the trafficker is a man he thought he killed years earlier while serving in the British Army. McBride takes on the assignment and contacts his army buddies who meet at his house in Thailand to plan the mission. With the help of his Thai housemaid and lover, Choy, he convinces Vanessa that her presence is imperative for his plan to work. She agrees to help, and finds herself falling in love with McBride, even though she has been sexually drawn to women more than men for most of her life. This sexually explicit novel walks a fine line between suspense and what could happen in real life. It is part of the McBride series. About the Author Stephen Cain was born in Birmingham, England, worked around the world, and now lives in Canada. "Much of what is in my books has been gleaned from personal experience. Having spent more than twenty years in and around the Middle and Far East, I have associated with many military people who have shared their experiences with me."
