She's the Number One Best Seller Jack Holiday
When Eve Swanson, the number one best selling representative of Leider Pharmaceuticals, is sent to meet with the irascible Doctor Jonathan Brody its dislike at first sight. Doctor Brody, the head of a poor inner city hospital, hates big pharmaceutical companies and their exorbitant prices. He also hates their representatives. Eve, determined to make the sale, follows Doctor Brody on his rounds. Together, they venture outside the walls of the hospital to the poorest of New York City's neighborhoods to visit elderly patients with no insurance. Together, Eve and Doctor Brody find one of big pharmaceutical's dark secrets. Eve, the cold-hearted, backstabbing saleswoman, and Doctor Brody, the selfless humanitarian are polar opposites. Thrust together by a common cause, pursued by a multi-billion dollar corporation, they find themselves running for their lives.
