EXTRAIT

Au volant de sa nouvelle Honda Prelude, Simon Gledhill roulait sur Mona Vale Road en trépidant au rythme de la dance music. Une cassette compilée avec talent par son pote Shane, qui la lui avait donnée l'après-midi même. Un amas de sons sourds sur une ligne de basse puissante, et des dubba, dubba, dubba ! dubba dubba dubba ! entrecoupés parfois d'un profond gémissement électronique et de ronronnements aigus et voluptueux. Le son se déversait sur les autres conducteurs et sur les habitants de la North Shore, tandis que le soleil de fin d'après-midi dardait ses rayons à travers le toit ouvrant du coupé cerise aux finitions argentées. C'était un jeudi, le 4 décembre. Simon avait terminé ses examens de fin d'année dix jours avant, exactement. Depuis, il sortait tous les soirs et allait presque tous les jours à la plage.
