Sea Kayaking the Redwood Coast Explore North Coast
California's Humboldt and Del Norte counties are a sea kayaker's paradise. From protected flat-water on coastal lagoons, to challenging open ocean and rock gardens along a breathtaking shore, sea kayakers can find it all on the redwood coast. Sea Kayaking the Redwood Coast is an insider's guide to the most popular kayaking areas in this region. Written by experienced paddlers who love sea kayaking and live along this redwood coast, this full color guide describes thirty-five routes in nineteen locales, from the mouth of the mighty Eel River to the spectacular coastal areas of Crescent City. Designed for beginner to expert paddlers, this essential guide provides detailed directions to launch areas, descriptions of routes, facilities and potential hazards. Sidebars describe the rich cultural history and the abundant wildlife of the area. Detailed maps show launch locations and facilities, along with prominent landmarks needed to safely explore the region. This guide is a must for all sea kayakers wishing to explore California's magnificent redwood coast. All proceeds from this book will benefit Explore North Coast, whose mission is to promote kayaking and educate the public about water safety and stewardship of our coastal resources.
