Fish Bait (A Short Story) John Everson

Never play a game if you don’t really understand the stakes…

When Terry and Wayne stumble upon a backwoods bar while camping in the Rockies, they just want a beer and a burger. And maybe a warm bed for the night, if they’re lucky. Instead they find themselves in the middle of a strange group of disturbingly scarred locals, served by a one-armed bartender. Even the sexy waitress with the elaborate octopus tattoo has what looks to be…bite marks? They know they should leave. But when libido and booze lure them into the back room for the local highlight of Carioca Fish Bait Fridays, they find themselves unwitting players in a very dangerous game.

John Everson, Bram Stoker Award–winning author of seven novels, brings you Fish Bait, a savage bite of backcountry horror.
